

WHEN YOUR DOG

VISITS A STATE PARK. . . .

State parks are full of strange sights, sounds and smells that may make the most friendly dog nervous and “nippy.”

To protect your dog and other visitors please observe the following rules:

-Keep your dog controlled on a leash no more than six feet long.

-Dogs are not allowed in park buildings.

-For sanitary reasons, dogs are not permitted on State Park beaches.

-Keep your dog calm and quiet. Aggressive or unusually noisy dogs will not be allowed in the park.

-To make everyone’s visit to the park more pleasant, please clean up after your dog.
