Disabled Veteran Discount

An afternoon spent fishing at Winchester Lake State Park

The Idaho Department of Parks and Recreation (IDPR) offers 100% disabled Idaho Veterans, with 100% service-related disabilities discounted* camping and day-use access within Idaho's State Parks.

Upon proof of eligibility, a lifetime, wallet-sized pass is issued allowing Idaho Veterans the opportunity to take advantage of their discount.

The Discount

The discount* entitles eligible Idaho Veterans to free Idaho State Park day-use access and one free campsite per overnight stay.

*Day-Use access is limited to one personal vehicle per day.

*Campers are responsible for utility fees (water, power, sewer) and associated campsite reservation fees.

*Camping is limited to a maximum of 15-days per 30-day period within the Idaho State Park system.

*Passes are non-transferable

*Discount applies only to lands managed by IDPR.

Eligibility

Idaho Veterans determined to be 100% disabled, having 100% service-related disabilities, with written proof from the Idaho Department of Veterans Affairs are eligible for the IDPR discount.

Idaho Veterans who have been issued a "Disabled Veteran" license plate from the Idaho Transportation Department (ITD) are also eligible for the discount and may use their license plate as proof of eligibility.

Obtaining a Pass

1) Obtain a letter from the Department of Veterans Affairs located at 805 W. Franklin Street, Boise Idaho 83702, (800-827-1000) verifying your eligibility.

2) Complete a veteran discount application.

3) Mail or fax your completed application and a copy of your letter from Veteran's Affairs to: Idaho Dept of Parks & Recreation ATTN: Veteran's Park Pass P.O. Box 83720, Boise, ID 83720-0065. Fax: (208) 334-5232. Your pass will be mailed to the address you provide.

Using Your Pass

When visiting Idaho State Parks, please check in at the information station or visitor center, present your Veteran's Pass and obtain a fee envelope. You may also obtain envelopes at self-pay stations.

Mark on the outside of the envelope "Veteran Pass Holder" and place the envelope on the dashboard of your vehicle. You may also place your Veteran's Pass card next to the envelope.
