IDPR is accepting applications to fill vacancies on Advisory Committees

The Idaho Department of Parks and Recreation (IDPR) is currently accepting applications to fill vacancies on the following Advisory Committees in the following areas:

- Land & Water Conservation Fund (LWCF) Advisory Committee

These committee members evaluate grant applications based on established criteria and make recommendations to the Idaho Park and Recreation Board for funding. Committee members will be required to review, make notes, and rate all applications within an on-line system in electronic format. Members are required to attend on-site meetings during the year with travel expenses reimbursed. Adequate computer systems are required to access the on-line application system and participate in virtual meetings.

You are required to share email and phone information so applicants can contact you regarding projects.

LWCF Evaluation Committee - The purpose of the Land and Water Conservation Fund is to acquire, develop, and maintain outstanding property into perpetuity for outdoor recreation facilities. There are currently eight LWCF advisory committee member openings statewide for the following criteria: three members shall be representatives of state and federal agencies with a technical relationship to the community development or the outdoor recreation needs in the state, one member shall represent a community of five thousand (5,000) population or more, one member shall represent a community of five thousand (5,000) population or less, and one member shall represent the interests of people with disabilities. Those applying for the LWCF Committee must live in Idaho and be willing to serve a three-year term.

Applications are due no later than December 31, 2026, and may be obtained by contacting Nicole Bohrn at the Idaho Department of Parks and Recreation State and Federal Grants Program:
